- Summative ELPAC
- LCAP

- Establecer fechas de próximas reuniones
- Clausura

Agenda Minutes:

- Introductions

Mrs. Maribelle Mallari, ELD Specialist/host of Parent University introduced herself. Elvira Salcedo, Bilingual Paraprofessional introduced herself as the meeting's Spanish translator. Mrs. Mallari taught the parents and attendees on how to turn on the interpretation feature for Zoom and went over the meeting's agenda.

One of the Spanish-speaking parents asked for clarification regarding turning on the feature to listen on Spanish.

- Purpose of ELAC & - Solicitation for Office nominations

Mrs. Mallari reiterated the purpose of the ELAC and clarified the important roles of parents in shaping the school's ELD program. She solicited nominations and interest for next school years ELAC which will have its first meeting in October

- Summative ELPAC

Mrs. Mallari explained that all English learners are going through the Summative ELPAC testing right now and it has been extended until June 30. She clarified the purpose of the test and its relationship with Reclassification and exiting the English Learner program.

- LCAP

Mrs. Mallari explained the purpose of the LCAP and its relationship with funding. She went through the 4 goals established by the school in their plan. She also went over metrics on the school's CA School Dashboard and its relationship to the LCAP. Parents were solicited for feedback regarding the school's LCAP goals and CA School Dashboard performance. One of the parents mentioned that are happy with the school and is looking forward to onsite instruction for the new school year when sports and field trips will be back for students to enjoy. Mrs. Mallari also posted in the chat room a link where parents can provide feedback to the LCAP anonymously.

- Establishing next meeting dates.

- Closing

Mrs. Mallari closed the meeting by announcing the next part of the Parent University workshop: helping parents make the most of Parent-Teacher Conferences.
